Rise Up & Write!

WELCOME!

AJLA "Rise Up & Write" is a space for students of all ages to celebrate the writing that they have been working on at school. From building foundational literacy skills to crafting paragraphs of work- AJLA students cover it all! Please enjoy our class writing features, each displaying developmentally appropriate technique through drawing, letter formation, and spelling. Nurturing the progress of skills is our goal- not perfection!

Second Grade

Second graders are learning all about the ocean and marine biologists. They have been learning about marine biologists of color for Black History Month and came across an oragnization "Black in Marine Science"! They have written persuasive letters to the organization asking for a marine scientist to come speak to our class.

COMING SOON: THE AJLA WAY

In each issue of "Rise Up & Write" we will be highlighting a special character development trait that is a pillar of the AJLA community! Check out our next issue for the first word that embodies the AJLA WAY. We will also be giving recommendations for books that exemplify each trait- a wonderful excuse to head to the local public library and borrow a copy!

And the fish you fell in love with Alo we would like you to come to our school. Mee can learn more about the ocean. Also we would like you to come to our school to teach us about the fish you fell in love with Alo we would like you to come to our school to teach us about the fish you fell in love with Alo we would like you to come to our school to teach us about how many fish that we in the ocean. That is why we would like you to come to our school to teach us about how many fish that we in the ocean.

First Grade

In celebration of Black History Month, First Graders crafted expanded sentences using their knowledge of space in combination with the histories of Black scientists and mathematicians at NASA. After reading "Hidden Figures" by Margot Lee Shetterly, students shared what they learned by answering questions like, "Who? What? Why?" to make their kernel sentences pop with spicy detail!

AJLA PIZZA PARLOR

PreK Oak has been learning all about cooking. Stop by their Pizza Parlor for a delicious slicewe recommend the cheese pizza!

Kindergarten In Kindergarten, students spend writing time journaling personal stories- with a current focus on retelling what happened over the weekend. They are working on counting words in a sentence and then spacing those words out with a finger space. Once they know how many words they have, they sound out what they hear in each word and write.

Fourth Grade

Fourth grade has been focused on imaginative and creative writing. Each day the class starts with a different writing prompt – it might be poetry, songs, or artwork as inspiration... it might even just start with a list of random words to include in a story!

Csongor wrote a short story using three random words for inspiration: snowplow / jazz / mandolin 4 hp OLA da man who was snow plow DIAYINA NID WIGH JULIZ ON Was SWayin and SINGIN so the whole plock can hear it. He was playing so softly and so be utifully that peop gathered around "and were cheering and cheering. They clearly loved it and just cheered on : Most the to Kids were swaying to evel were were dancing. Yeah, you do you kids. When the snowplow man was done he stepped out side of the snow plaw and took a huge bow. People payed money and begged for more jazz! "Okay Okoy", said the sonowplow man'I will play some more juzz". Then he picked his mandolin and started more, He Jazzin some Dusth orno Played until
